1 FAMILIES AND FRIENDS: ARE WE HAPPY TOGETHER?

SECTION 1

1 a) Cross the odd word out.

- 1) sightseeing, swimming, diving, surfing, boating
- 2) expedition, trip, journey, tour, resort
- 3) aerobics, athletics, linguistics, acrobatics, gymnastics
- 4) passenger, tourist, holidaymaker, traveller, waiter
- 5) sunbathing, swimming, boating, snowboarding, windsurfing

b) Match the words to make phrases.

to play	fiction stories
to have	new friends
to do	outdoors
to read	fun
to make	sports

2 Find out what your classmates did in the summer. Write four questions in each column.

It was fun	It was useful or necessary
Did you spend much time with your friends?	Did you read the books from the school reading list?

3 Complete the text with the articles.

Do you know what a limerick is? I bet you don't. Most (1) _____ teenagers are not very keen on poetry. I also prefer (2) _____ historical novels and detective stories to poetry. Poetry seems boring to me but (3) _____ limericks are a different thing. They are quite popular in (4) _____ Britain, in (5) _____ Ireland in particular. A limerick is (6) _____ kind of humorous little poem. It has only five lines. (7) _____ first line rhymes with the second, the third with the fourth, and the last one with the first and the second again. (8) _____ rhyme of a limerick is like this: AABBA. I even wrote (9) _____ limerick myself. It's about a holiday at (10) _____ seaside:

Lay in the sun as long as you can
No doubt, you'll get a wonderful tan.
At contests of beauties you'll get the first prize
And even your doctor will say in surprise
That he is forever your fan.

4 Read the dialogues. Agree or disagree with the statements below them. Use the phrases from the box. The first one is done for you.

That's right. I agree with that.
It's not like that at all. It's not really like that. I can't agree with that.

- 1 — Did you make any new friends this summer, James?
— No, but I spent lots of time with my old friends.
- 2 — What did you do this summer, Alice?
— I babysat for my neighbours. It wasn't a difficult job, but it took me four hours every day.
- 3 — Did you spend your summer at home, Julia?
— No, I went to the sea. My grandmother lives there and I spent two wonderful months swimming in the sea, lying in the sun, and helping my grandma in the garden. She grows a lot of different fruits and vegetables there and needs help.
- 4 — Holiday for me is time for having fun. I never read or learn anything. Do you, Jack?
— Well, reading for me is fun. I don't think I can go a couple of days without a book.
- 5 — Did you go anywhere for holiday, Cathy?
— No, I didn't leave my town, but I had great time there. We often went on a hike. It was fun to live in tents, go fishing, and make campfires.

1 James had no friends. That's why he felt very lonely this summer.

I can't agree with that. James didn't make any new friends but he spent lots of time with his old friends.

2 Alice didn't have any summer jobs because she doesn't like doing anything difficult.

3 Julia not only enjoyed herself, but helped her grandmother to grow fruits and vegetables.

4 Jack didn't read anything while on holiday.

5 Cathy stayed in her town and that's why her holiday was very boring.

5 Tick the questions you'd better to avoid when you talk to someone you don't know very well.

- 1 Why are you wearing these shorts? They look silly.
- 2 Do you often come to this place for holidays?
- 3 Can I borrow your sunglasses? They don't suit you anyway.
- 4 What's your weight?

- 5 What places of interest can you recommend here?
- 6 Where did you learn to swim so well?
- 7 Don't you think so much pastries and sweets can be harmful?
- 8 Have you already bought any souvenirs for your family?
- 9 How much does your bag cost?

6 Answer Kevin's letter (see Ex. 19, p. 16 in Student's Book). Invite him and his sister to visit your region (or any other region of the country). Use the guidelines and phrases from the box.

Guidelines:

- Give the name and a short description of the place.
- Write about what the guests can do there (the information about Kevin's and his sister's interests and hobbies is in his letter).

If you are interested in history and sightseeing, I'm sure you'll enjoy visiting...
If you are good at different sports, why not take part in ... ?
Some students in our school are going to ... for holiday. Why don't you join us?
Visiting ... is a good idea if you enjoy...
As you live on Isle of Man, I'm sure you've never seen...

 (address)

 (date)

Hello, Kevin,

It was nice to get a letter from you. I'm glad that you want to learn more about my country and hope that my information will help you.

There are lots of places in my country worth seeing. You can go to the big cities like Moscow or St Petersburg and sightsee there. Or you can go to some places far from the capital cities to enjoy nature and learn about the different lifestyles in various parts of our country.

It's your choice but I want to invite you and your sister to the place where I live. It's

So, how do you feel about this? Write me about your decision. If you have any questions, I'll be glad to answer them.
 Hope to hear from you soon,

It was a grey rainy day. Jane was in and was searching the shelves for something to read. Granny was having a nap in the armchair. Jane came across a thick and heavy album with old photos. It definitely wasn't the thing to cure her boredom, but, nevertheless, she looked through several pages.

"Who is he?" Jane asked her grandmother, pointing to a photo of a handsome man with a thick moustache and a square beard. "My uncle," replied the grandmother, "he was a sailor. He had left home before I was born. He went to America to dig for gold. People said he had made a fortune there. But he gambled and died penniless. He had an Indian wife and three daughters. One of them, extremely beautiful, became a film star."

"And what about this lady?" Jane moved to a photo of a pretty woman in a lovely old-fashioned cap with ribbons. "My Nanny," the grandmother gave a mild little smile. "She was French, from a noble family. In her early years she fell desperately in love with a young officer. Her parents did not approve of their marriage and she escaped from home, in a man's dress and under a false name, to follow that man. However, he was killed in one of the battles quite soon, and she found herself alone, in a foreign country. She had to work as a nanny to save some money for the trip back. That is how she entered our house. We loved her very much and finally she decided to stay with us."

Jane felt more and more interested. "And look, this is me ... in a fancy dress!" "No," laughed the grandmother. "This is me, in my favourite dress. It was given to me for my fifth birthday." Jane had a strange feeling as if the waves of memories were passing through the room. Her family story was turning into something alive and extremely exciting...
